REPORTS FROM AGENCIES AND ELECTED OFFICIALS:

Captain Penmen;

- Current top 3 calls for our area: suspicious incidents, alarms and animal complaints.
- Thefts from mailboxes are occurring in Harford County. Please use the post office for outgoing mail when possible.

Sergent Lane;

- Commercial vehicles are pulled over for inspection at the Rutledge Park about once every 2 – 3 months. Rutledge Park is used for this because it is County owned property and it is a safe place for both the police and the drivers to pull over.
- Question regarding LED light bulbs; Do they need to be covered while driving?
 - o No, they do not have to be covered but they do have to be off while driving.

Sue Sapp;

- Distributed the handout, Highlights from the Harford County Council Meetings
- Please visit the Harford County Council webpage for full Council meeting minutes, <http://www.harfordcountymd.gov/Council>

Aurora Kahoe;

- Delegate Cassilly introduced House Bill 393 regarding Kilgore Falls and Park Rangers being able to issue parking citations. Councilman Shrodes supported this bill and it did pass last week.
- You can now make advance reservations to visit Kilgore Falls on summer weekends and holidays only.
 - o Call 410-557-7994 or go to <https://dnr.maryland.gov/publiclands/pages/central/rocks.aspx>

The Harford County Commission for Women;

- Community Conversation Series on Human Sex Trafficking
- Free in-depth discussion featuring representatives from law enforcement, victim services and victims.
- Monday April 29, 2019, 6:30 – 8:00 pm
- New Destiny Evangelistic Church, 2080 Trimble Road Edgewood, MD 21040
- RSVP is encouraged,
 - o call Kristy Heim, 410-638-3389 or email, klheim@harfordcountymd.gov

OLD BUSINESS:

Jim Torre, Stop Transource Powerlines Harford County;

- Please attend the Maryland Public Input Hearing with the Public Service Commission on April 27th, 11 am at North Harford High School. Our neighbors need a large attendance to show our community support. This is only the first project planned for Harford County. If we cannot stop this project more transmission line projects will be planned for our preserved farmland.
- Aurora Kahoe; Patti Hankins stressed at the Whiteford CAB Meeting that is project will actually increase our energy costs in this area.
-  Please see the attached letter regarding the April 27th hearing from Stop Transource Powerlines Harford County.
- Please sign up for important notices by emailing, stoptransourceiec@gmail.com
- Follow the group on Facebook, Stop Transource Power Lines Harford County, MD

BOARD OF EDUCATION:

Nancy Reynolds;

- Board is currently waiting for the Harford County budget to be announced. If the education cuts go through as planned our class sizes will increase and Harford County already has the largest class sizes in the State of Maryland.

ADOPTION OF MIUNUTES FROM PREVIOUS MEETING:

Dave Seman;

- o Minutes from our March 13, 2019 meeting were approved by the Executive Board members.
- o Our past meeting minutes can be viewed on the County website at, <http://www.harfordcountymd.gov/1634/Jarrettsville-Norrisville>
- o We also email minutes to our email list. Please let us know if you would like your email added to our mailing list.

NEW BUSINESS:

Shane Smithson;

- Pond View Farm Market Community Input Meeting will be held April 11, 2019, 6 pm at the Norrisville Rec Center Community room.

Dave Seman;

- The Jarrettsville Grille is having it's Grand Opening April 12, 2019.
- The North Harford Fish & Game Club will hold its annual Easter Egg Hunt on Saturday April 20th at 1 pm. There will be free hotdogs and soda.
